++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Remaining settled and dry, with overnight frosts.

Today:
A cold and clear start, with sunshine through the morning. Patchy fair-weather cloud will develop in the afternoon, though sunny spells will still occur. Dry throughout and feeling pleasant in the sun, helped by light winds. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Tonight:
The patchy fair-weather cloud will clear through the evening leaving widely clear skies overnight. Dry, with a patchy frost forming, more so in the east. Minimum temperature -2 deg C (28 deg F).

Friday:
Staying dry on Friday, with plenty of early sunshine before patchy cloud develops again. Another mostly clear night will follow, with a chance of frost. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Dry on Saturday, with early sunshine and patchy afternoon cloud. Cloudier on Sunday and Monday, but it should remain dry. Daytime temperatures gradually rising and overnight frosts less likely.
